By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. (R.) 2. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine,
in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table. (R.) | 3. Indeed thus shall be blessed all the days of your life!

May you see your children's children.
On Israel, peace! (R.) |

Holy Family Fete – Celebrating 60 Years

One of the first things the Parishioners of Holy Family did 60 years ago was to organise a Parish Fete as a way of bringing the Parish Community together and raising much-needed funds. I encourage each and every member of the parish to mark Saturday 17th November in your diaries if you haven't already. Over the coming weeks, you will be invited to participate in a variety of ways in what promises to be a wonderful conclusion to our 60th Anniversary celebrations

Memorial Garden and Columbarium

Works will commence this week on the new additions to the Memorial Garden to help permanently commemorate our 60th Anniversary. We look forward to the completion of this work in the weeks ahead and to welcoming our new Archbishop +Peter Comensoli who will join us in December for the official opening and blessing.

Divine Renovation Reading Program

I warmly invite Parishioners to join us over the next six weeks as together we look at the future of Holy Family Parish. This will be a wonderful opportunity for us to discuss what it means to be a Parish today, and what are our hopes and plans for the future. This is an important time in the life of the Parish, and I encourage as many of you to be involved as possible.

Fr Nicholas Pearce

Holy Family Parish

Looking Forward to the next 60 Years

As our 60th year draws to a close, we begin as a Parish to look forward to the next 60 years. As our society changes, and our local community changes, it is essential that we as a Parish look at who we are and what we are doing, to ensure that we are addressing the needs of our local community and doing all we can to effectively proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Join us as we reflect in these matters and as we look at the future of the Holy Family Parish Mount Waverley.
